To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Jaclyn Hahn, teacher at Royal Dance Academy in West Deptford, NJ. In 2020, I hired Jaclyn as a teacher and a choreographer. During this past year, I have known Jaclyn to be professional, dedicated, talented, personable, and great with our students and parents.

I have witnessed Jaclyn's commitment to all her students. She works within her expertise at each age level, works collaboratively with our faculty members, and works toward creating a successful environment for every student, no matter their ability.

Ms. Hahn has a great passion for improving her students' skills in every class and shows great enthusiasm every day. Students, as well as her colleagues, enjoy learning from Jaclyn and all she has learned through her vast list of experiences. Ms. Hahn is able to make connections with all types of learners and has established positive connections with her students' parents. We consider ourselves lucky to have Miss Jaclyn on our faculty.

Thank you so much for taking the time to consider Ms. Hahn for this opportunity.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at any time.

Sincerely,

Theresa M. Pietrowski,
